Broomhill Infants School Re-Decoration

During March 2006 J&C Joel were asked to assist in the re-decoration of the Hall at Broomhill Infants School. The Project which was part of ITV West's charity profile, consisted of J&C Joel providing all of the schools hall curtains free of charge.

The project, similar to many challenges, had to be complete in a day from start to finish. Obviously this caused a major logistical problem for Rupert Evelyn of ITV West news who was leading the project. As ever J&C Joel delivered the curtains on time. Mr Evelyn's comment about J&C Joel's workmanship was that "[f]rom the start, you and your colleagues made the job sound easy. You took the weight off our shoulders and delivered a first class service".
